Points based awards to recognize Arabian, Anglo-Arabian, Shagya Arabian, and part-bred Arabian horses and ponies competing in all levels of sport horse discipline competitions.

ARABIAN SPORT HORSE ALLIANCE

COMPETITION POINTS PROGRAM

Rulebook

The Arabian Sport Horse Alliance Competition Points Program is designed to recognize performance achievements of Arabian-bred horses and ponies at all levels of sport horse disciplines in open all-breed competition as well as at Arabian breed venues.

This affordable program offers Year End High Point Awards for participation in sport horse disciplines. Points are earned based on placings (scores for Dressage) with bonuses for championships, special recognition (like high point awards or best condition in endurance), and for achievements at regional and national events.

Whatever your goals with your Arabian-bred sport horse partner, the Arabian Sport Horse Alliance's point program has something for you!

Disciplines:

Dressage

Eventing

Hunters

Driven Dressage

Endurance

Jumpers

Combined Driving

Western Dressage

Carriage Driving

Sport Horse Suitability

Sport Horse In-Hand

Dressage Equitation

Hunter Equitation

This multi-faceted awards program was created exclusively for Arabian Sport Horse Alliance members' horses. The program includes categories for the traditional sport horse disciplines of Dressage, Jumpers, Hunters, Combined Driving, Driven Dressage, and Eventing plus the adjunct disciplines of In-hand and Suitability classes as well as Endurance (which shares its roots with the sport horse disciplines in the cavalry tests), Hunter Equitation, Dressage Equitation, and Western Dressage.

Each discipline has separate categories for All-Breed competitions and for Breed Restricted (AHA) competitions where the discipline category exists in both. A Champion and Reserve Champion will be awarded in all categories. When participation levels in a discipline category reaches 25 enrolled horses breed recognition will be given for the Champion and Reserve Champion of the following breed designations: Arabian, Shagya-Arabian, Anglo-Arabian, and Arabian-bred (Half-Arabians, and part-breds with documented 25% or more Arabian or Shagya lineage in the 1st three generations). When participation by discipline levels is sufficient, categories may be subdivided by levels (or at least level groups like “lower” and “upper”).

Annual points are earned from class/ride/event results at schooling venues, rated venues, area and national championships, and FEI sanctioned competitions. Points are weighted according to how high the horse placed (or scored for Dressage) and the rank of the venue.

A separate system for “Milestone” points is used to earn tiers of lifetime achievement points in individual performance discipline categories. A horse can earn Milestone levels in multiple performance disciplines. The three Milestone Award tiers are Bronze, Silver, and Gold. Additionally, if points towards a Milestone tier are earned at advanced levels of that discipline, the award includes the designation of “Elite”. Reaching Milestone Bronze Award levels in three different performance disciplines is the basis for the Arabian Sport Horse Alliance Versatility Award.

Point Categories

Points are attached to the horse not the rider so open, AA, and Youth/Junior classes all earn points for the horse in each discipline division. The individual sport disciplines have separate all-breed and breed-restricted categories. Splits by level will be made as warranted by participation levels.

Special Categories

The Tally Forms include designations for Youth exhibitors and for Pony Divisions. Youth Champions and Pony Division Champions will be recognized in categories with participation in these sub-categories.

For the Youth category, it is the exhibitor's classification that counts; not whether or not the class is specific for youth or junior rider/handler/drivers so results where a youth shows against adults count towards this category. The results are still linked to the horse, so if a horse (or pony) is shown by multiple youths in the same discipline category, that horse/pony will accrue points from each youth exhibitor toward a total in that discipline.

For the Pony Division recognition, the classification of the class as restricted to ponies (or 14.2H and under for AHA) is what determines inclusion in this special category because the award is targeted at success in Pony Divisions.

Venue Specifications

Each discipline will be subdivided into All-Breed (Open) competition and Breed Restricted (AHA shows or classes restricted by breed like DSHB IBCs) competition venues to recognize the value of each of those kinds of competitions. All-Breed (Open) competitions offer opportunities to showcase how well Arabian-bred sport horses measure up to the performance standards that ultimately define the sport horse world. Breed Restricted competitions allow Arabian-bred sport horses to be measured against the best sport horses within the specific breed.

Discipline Division Specifications

General: All classes for young sport horses (these typically include a specific age restriction) are included in the “Suitability Under Saddle” or the “In-Hand” Divisions rather than under the sport discipline category under which they fall. Otherwise, the Discipline Divisions include all classes in that sport division’s governing body’s rules where the horse’s performance is judged unless noted as an exception. Para-Equestrian Dressage and Driving are included in their respective sport divisions.

1) Dressage

- a) All-Breed Venues (Intro* Level through GP including Freestyles, also FEI Young Rider Tests and FEI Pony Dressage at equivalent Level rank)
- b) Breed Restricted Venues (AHA) (Intro* Level through GP)

2) Western Dressage

- a) All-Breed Venues (Intro* through 3rd Level including Freestyles)
- b) Breed Restricted Venues (AHA) Venues (Intro* through 3rd Level)

Intro levels in Dressage and Western Dressage only earn Annual Points, and do not earn Milestone Points.*

High Score Awards will be given out for individual levels in Dressage for enrolled horses with the highest median score of their top 3 scores from two different shows.*

3) Dressage Equitation

- a) All-Breed Venues -Youth and Adult
- b) Breed Restricted Venues (AHA) Venues – Youth and Adult

4) Hunters

- a) All-Breed Venues (fence height categories $\leq 3'$, 3'3" -3'6", $> 3'6"$)
- b) Breed Restricted Venues (AHA) Venues
(All rider divisions and horse/pony divisions within the USEF Hunter division that are judged on horse performance are included)

5) Hunter Equitation

- a) All-Breed Venues (fence height categories $\leq 3'$, $3'3''$ - $3'6''$, $> 3'6''$)
- b) Breed Restricted Venues (AHA) Venues (Working Hunter Division)

6) Jumpers

- a) All-Breed Venues ($<.95\text{m}$, $1\text{m} - 1.2\text{m}$, $\geq 1.25\text{m}$)
- b) Breed Restricted Venues (AHA) Venues (Jumper Division)

All rider divisions and horse divisions within the USEF Jumper division are included in this category. (Classes judged on Faults only, Classes judged on Time and Faults, Gambler's Choice, Puissance; Children, Juniors, Adult Amateurs, Open; Ponies and Horses)

7) Eventing

- a) All-Breed Venues (Beginner Novice and Novice, Training, Prelim through Advanced)

8) Combined Driving

- a) All-Breed Venues (Training, Prelim, Intermediate, Advanced)

9) Driven Dressage

- a) All-Breed Venues (Training, Prelim, Intermediate, Advanced)

10) Carriage Driving

- a) All-Breed Venues (ADS Pleasure Driving Obstacle classes, ADS Combination Classes, and any ADS Pleasure Driving class except Park)
- b) Breed Restricted Venues (AHA) Venues (Carriage Pleasure Driving and Combined Driving Divisions)

Points in driving divisions are recorded by individual horse whether they compete in single, pairs, or team divisions.

11) Distance Riding (“level” splits are endurance and limited distance/combined trail.)

- a) All-Breed Venues (Endurance, Limited Distance, CTR)
- b) Breed Restricted Venues (AHA) Venues (Endurance, Limited Distance, CTR)

For welfare reasons only sanctioned distance rides count for points.

12) In-Hand

- a) All-Breed Venues (DSHB in-hand {except for IBCs}, HB, FEH, YHS in-hand and YHS Free Jumping)
- b) Breed Restricted Venues (AHA) Venues (SHIH-d, SHIH-h, DSHB IBCs, and other open world sport horse in-hand classes restricted by breed)

In-hand classes earn Annual Points, but not Milestone Points. All sport horse discipline types are included together in the In-Hand category.

13) Suitability

- a) All-Breed Venues (Materiale, DSHB Under Saddle, USEF/FEI Young Dressage Horse Classes (4-6 year old), Young Event Horse YEH, YHS under saddle, IHF under saddle, Dressage Suitability, Dressage Equitation, 5, 6 and 7/8 year old Jumpers.)
- b) Breed Restricted Venues (AHA) Venues (SHUS-d, SHUS-h, SHSH)

Suitability classes earn Annual Points, but not Milestone Points. All sport horse discipline types are included together in the overall Suitability category. Any performance class in the sport disciplines that is restricted by age to young horses and/or is designed to evaluate suitability for a sport horse discipline falls under this category.

Please feel free to ask whether or not specific classes are included in a category. Any breed restricted class is classified under the “Breed Restricted” venue even if that class is held at an All-Breed (Open) venue. DSHB Individual Breed classes are one example of a breed restricted class at an All-Breed (Open) show.

Visual guide to point categories

Splits by level will occur when sufficient entries in category exist to support at least be lower and upper level splits.

Rules

- 1) Enrolled horses must be owned by a current member in good standing of the Arabian Sport Horse Alliance. (Alliance membership is not required for Riders, Handlers, and Drivers.)
- 2) Enrolled horses must be recorded with the Arabian Sport Horse Alliance. (recording form available in members' area of <http://arabiansporthorsealliance.org/> or by contacting secretary@arabiansporthorsealliance.org)
- 3) Cost of enrollment is $20 for the first division and $10 for each additional division. The Dressage High Score Program is $5 extra. Enrollment divisions encompass the discipline and the venue category. Enrollment in a division includes any levels and classes included within the discipline category for which the horse is eligible to compete. (For example: All Breed (Open) Jumpers is a separate enrollment category from Breed Restricted (AHA) Jumpers.)
- 4) Results to be reported for points must be submitted on the appropriate Arabian Sport Horse Alliance Point Tally Form. Tally forms should be submitted electronically or my mail (postmarked) within 30 days of the event. A link, electronic copy, or hard copy of the prize list, show bill, or event brochure (including date(s), class list, judge/official(s) name(s) and show secretary name and contact information) should be submitted if available.
 Since scores are used to determine points in the Dressage category, we need to verify scores. USDF rated shows scores will be verified online. For schooling shows and other non-USDF shows dressage participants must also include a copy of the front page of the test sheets with show name, horse name, judge name, and score.
- 5) This current program runs from December 1st 2017 through November 30th 2018
- 6) Note that all classes and rides at rated/sanctioned shows, distance rides, and events include participation or completion points so even if the horse doesn't place, points are earned toward the annual total and for the lifetime Milestone tier awards so remember to report all points eligible classes and rides to be sure you get credit.

- 7) When participation levels warrant, discipline categories will be split by level. At a minimum with sufficient participation, there will be “lower level” and “upper level” splits in divisions with progressive levels.
- 8) Milestone points are earned in performance categories where developmental progression is part of the discipline. (Dressage, Western Dressage, Hunters, Jumpers, Eventing, Distance Riding, Combined Driving, Driven Dressage, and Carriage Driving. In-Hand, Equitation, and Performance Suitability divisions do not earn Milestone Points -nor do the intro levels of Dressage and Western Dressage.)
- 9) Both Annual and Milestone points are awarded based on class/ride/event placings (scores for dressage) with bonus points for special awards like high point, championships, and best condition. Points at schooling venues are lower than points earned at rated venues. All points (Annual and Milestone including any bonus categories) earned at FEI sanctioned venues are worth three times the normal amount. The USEF's "International Hunter Derby" will count as the Elite level for the Hunter Division so all points earned at IHD series venues are worth three times the normal amount.
- 10) Random verification will be done on submitted Point Tally Forms. Proven fraudulent reporting of results will be grounds for removal from the program and for revocation of membership in the Arabian Sport Horse Alliance.
- 11) Participants have 30 days to submit results from November shows. A panel of reviewers will audit the results. As a further step to verify results, individual preliminary results will then be shared with participants for review prior to finalization.
- 12) Additional awards may be offered by ASHA or by a sponsor. (For instance: “High Mileage”, High Score Dressage Freestyle, Top Anglo-Arabian in an all-breed over fences division, etc.)

Western Dressage All Breed	1125	2250	3375
Western Dressage Breed Restricted	1500	3000	4500

Points levels for Milestone tiers vary by discipline due to the differences in competition structure between disciplines. A formula was applied to each discipline to obtain the Bronze, Silver, and Gold levels for the individual disciplines; while the target numbers differ, those numbers represent similar challenge levels to earn the three Milestone tiers.

Elite Designation for the Arabian Sport Horse Alliance Milestone Awards

Level requirements for “Elite” designation of Milestone Awards. If any of a horse’s Milestone Points earned toward a tier are at or above the following levels then the award will include the “Elite” designation to signify that the horse has competed at an advanced level:

Discipline	Elite Level
Distance	100 mile
Eventing	Preliminary
Combined Driving	Preliminary
Driven Dressage	Preliminary
Dressage	Prix St. George
Jumpers	1.1m
Hunters	1.1m
Western Dressage	Level 4

Arabian Sport Horse Alliance Versatility Award:

Horses that earn Bronze Milestone Awards in three different* disciplines will be awarded an ASHA Versatility Award. This award requires both versatility of athleticism and dedication to achieve sustained success in three different sport disciplines.

*For the purposes of this award, the three disciplines must not include both the all breed and breed restricted categories of the same sport discipline. Otherwise any of the disciplines that earn Milestone points count toward this special award.
